Anton Knyazhichenko, who beat his former girlfriend in the garage of her home in Megion, filed a statement with the police. As the source of NEFT in law enforcement agencies, the young man complains of threats.

The man denies that he specifically beat the girl on video. Now, instead of this, he receives threats. He filed a statement with the police.

Conflict on the staircase, as Knyazhichenko told law enforcement agencies, began after humiliations of his address, as well as after humiliations of his mother. He also says that he doubts his own fatherhood.

According to the girl's friend, the girl took a million rubles in a loan, after which Anton bought a car and registered it in his name. The girl filed a statement with the police, but the police did not take any measures, as the loan was not registered by law, and Anton is not the guarantor. The young man beat the girl because she filed a statement with the police instead of the car loan.

UPD: Against Anton Knyazhichenko, who beat his former girlfriend for refusing to pay the car loan, a criminal case is being opened under article 119 of the Criminal Code of the Russian Federation «Threat of murder». About this NEFT told the press service representative of the UMSD in KhMAO Olga Abmaykina.
